This monthly group is an opportunity for those with any type of blood cancer and their family caregivers to come together to share questions, concerns, information, and feelings and to support each other throughout the treatment process.

An orientation attendance and brief preparation interview are required before attending this groups.

This group is facilitated by Diane Martell, LMFT, a licensed mental health professional and a long-time CSCVSB group facilitator. As with all services provided by CSCVSB, is offered free of charge
